

What people are saying about Ridin' Fence.

“She puts a voice to where I live.”

----Cathy Wilson, Springfield, Colorado

“I love the stories. They’re that basic BS that happens every day, but I can laugh about it.”

---- Jay Daniels, truck driver, Ark Valley Coop.

“I am deployed. . . . and Lynn Allen’s column . . . captures for me the spirit of home, the part I miss the most. I post her column for all to see. Thanks for a job well done.”

----Julia A. Davis USACE

“Where did you find Lynn Allen??? She is GOOD! Her story about the wind was a hoot!”

----Norm Slaten, Moline Illinois

“It’s so nice to know there are other farm wives out there with machinery that doesn’t work and husbands who aren’t home.”

----Ann Koch, deer producer and military wife

“(Readers) feel at home and they like that sense of community. There’s such a small percentage of the people that live in rural America, but all people love rural America.”

----Dave Howard, Mayor, Cheraw, Colorado

Appearing previously as the content of the weekly column, Ridin' Fence, all the stories were selected by reader recommendation.